SENATOR CROSBY: But...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...again, you won't see the language there in...

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, but...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...the treasurers don't...you're setting up an accounting nightmare if you let people pay every two weeks or whatever, right?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: This...

SENATOR CROSBY: Is that what you were getting in the hearing?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No. Yeah, this is...but this is voluntary.

SENATOR CROSBY: But this...a voluntary by who...from by whom?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: The county assessor...or the county treasurer, I'm sorry. The county treasurer can voluntarily set up the mechanisms. We've simply set out the authority and the structure that they can implement if they wish to do so.

SENATOR CROSBY: And they have to go through the county board?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No. Oh, there...well, okay, I'm sorry, there is a resolution process.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, it says here that you mention the county board in Section 45.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes, I'm sorry, Senator.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes, I'm sorry, Senator, I didn't...hope I didn't...
